

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL - TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1861.

LOCAL MATTERS.

TUESDAY MORNING, 11:30 A.M., 10, 1861.
Office—Union Street, Cor. Front Alley.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

All advertisements, except those sent in by persons with stations, must vary entries, to insure them, must be paid for in advance. We are compelled to make this a rule, at least for a time, and hope none will object to it.

COUNCIL MEETING.—Council will be in session to-morrow evening.

The notes of the Bank of West Tennessee are received on deposit by the Nashville banks.

ANOTHER EXHIBITION.—It is with pleasure we state that the ladies and gentlemen of the telegraph streets have acceded to the call for a repetition of their splendid performance.

SERENADE.—We offer our thanks to our kind correspondents for the excellent amount of reward to us, but the game is not worth the powder.

LORE.—Mr. John Callahan, a veteran, a thorough horse rider and a bright boy made which he has lost, was for the recovery of which he offers a reward. See the advertisement.

DISCHARGE.—Officer Ryan, who was arrested on Saturday night on the charge of shooting at a man he wanted to arrest, was discharged by the Recorder. The evidence supported Ryan's statement that his pistol accidentally exploded in the fall.

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.—The oath of allegiance, agreed to be taken by all persons whose fidelity to the Confederate States is doubtful, will in this city be administered by Judge Hill, having been authorized to do so by the Mayor.

GEN. J. B. CLARK.—The Missouri forces, accompanied by W. M. Cook and Dr. H. W. Cross, arrived in this city on Sunday last. Gen. Clark is en route for Richmond, and will return to this place the latter part of the week.

WIFE WHIPPED.—George Weisner was yesterday arrested by officers Sullivan, on the charge of whipping his wife. He had a cow hide under his coat when the officers arrested him. He was fined $20 by Recorder Moore.

DR. COWLEY.—This gentleman, physician at the Southern Mother's Hospital, has now made Assistant Surgeon of the Confederate army, and destined to that hospital for duty. We shall have something to say to-morrow of what we have made to this institution.

MONK STREET GHOST.—The two detective officers connected with our city police witnessed themselves on the haunted premises, at the corner of Monroe and Third streets, on Sunday night. No missiles fell while they remained, but we learn that they have disappeared.

SCAPED.—We learn that Mr. E. J. Marshall, late telegraph operator at Paducah, who escaped with his instruments the day the Confederates took possession of Paducah, has arrived at Corinth safe and sound. A Frenchman of Besancon cavalry was sent in pursuit of him, but he managed to elude them.

MANHATTAN.—We were yesterday shown a specimen of lace, of the kind known as pointe au poche, which was worked by a lady of this city and will be presented to the lady of President Davis. It contains twenty-four different patterns and will compare favorably with the best European productions of the article.

NO MANHOOD.—There is considerable gossip in this city respecting the recent flight of a Carolina gentleman, who, not long ago, proposed marriage to a Memphis lady; the lady went to considerable expense in securing the nuptials, when he intended bridegroom suddenly left the city. The bride that would have been gone to Charleston to seek refuge at the court of partition.

NO MANHOOD.—We have before us the programme for the musical entertainment at the theater to-night for the benefit of the Tennessee volunteers. The first part is the Gilbert Fay, the second is the Flower Queen, and abounds in choruses, songs, recitations, duets and solos. The Graceland dance will be introduced. This will be a great treat, and the curtain is partitioned.

GENERAL QUINBY.—Measures Quinby and Robinson have undertaken to donate $500 monthly to the Southern Mother's Home. That society now occupy two of the stores and houses in the Irving block, and a portion of a third, the proprietors, Messrs. Cook & Co., letting them have the tenement free, the society paying only taxes and insurance. The society acknowledge a donation of $200, made by the county court of Fulton county, Arkansas.

WE CARE.—The philosophical systems of our friend, the local of the "Jesuits," a practical chemist of long experience, have found no satisfaction a school of the theory of the atom, or a science of things, and he has given up his search for a science in the pursuit of material objects. He says some persons, of unusual scientific attainments, drink several bottles of whisky; he then takes the empty bottles into the premises in question, and pitches after them the bricks he finds in his list. The only difficulty is not in this solution is that the number of bricks is much beyond that of bottles. That involves the question, how many bricks can be made out of one bottle of whisky?

WAR ON MAIN STREET.—The spirit of contention was "Lord of the ascents" on Main street, well known to all. Mr. Malloy, a blacker than black, was covered with blood, in his own office, a man not yet in custody. The blacker at the corner was identified by a customer, a battle followed commencing with a charge of light artillery, in the shape of pitchers and tubs—not buried by the hands of ghosts; then the blacker whipped his assailant. At 10 o'clock a disturbance occurred opposite the Phoenix saloon—still in the same block—in which four pistol shots were discharged, one of which hit a customer of the saloon, left, inflicting a severe wound and breaking his arm, forcing out a portion of the bone.

This was understood to be the continuation of a quarrel on the same spot on Saturday night, at which Mr. L. Rice received a shot near the saloon. Two persons charged with being concerned in shooting Mr. Yowell, were arrested.

PATRIOTIC ENTERTAINMENTS.—A critic in the Advertiser makes some remarks on these entertainments, etc., etc., etc., as will be seen in the article.

IN BOSTON.—Malony, a contractor, who was covered with blood, in his own office, a man not yet in custody, was a man of three and Monroe street, etc., etc., etc.

IN NEW ORLEANS.—The popular steamboat, the New Orleans, was shown this evening at the New Orleans Riverfront, Capt. T. B. Brown, and Capt. J. C. McCallum, left for New Orleans.

WHITE HOUSE.—The popular steamboat, the White House, left for New Orleans this evening at 8 o'clock.

TRIBUTE TO REPECE.—Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1861, at a public meeting in the Auditorium the South, this evening, the friends of the deceased, a practical chemist of long experience, who was to receive the report of the committee appointed to state resolutions in tribute to the memory of the deceased, Dr. George H. Revere, etc., etc., etc.

WE CARE.—The Louisville Courier, of Sunday, learns from passengers who left St. Louis by rail Thursday, that two negroes had been ruthlessly murdered, shot in cold blood, by order of the military dictator, Gen. Fremont. Their offense, if any, was not known, and we cannot find a word about it in the St. Louis papers, excepting the following from the Advertiser:

We learn from Franklin county that numerous proslavery citizens, who had been captured by the rebels, were released, but were still held in confinement, and were sent to St. Louis, Mo., and Capt. J. C. McCallum, left for New Orleans.

WE CARE.—The popular steamboat, the New Orleans, was shown this evening at the New Orleans Riverfront, Capt. T. B. Brown, and Capt. J. C. McCallum, left for New Orleans.

WE CARE.—John D. Webster, a contractor, who was covered with blood, in his own office, a man not yet in custody, was a man of three and Monroe street, etc., etc., etc.

IN NEW YORK.—On Saturday evening, the 2d inst., Francis Fletcher, a son of John W. and Anna F. Williams, aged two years, from Canada, was missing. [See copy below.]

Our present caring Francis has been taken from us, but we have a good one now.

Gen. in his opinion, the boy is a good one.
